

Continuing Education Questionnaire

Write Your Name:

Once this form is completed, please submit to institute@neurorestorative.com

Sobering Thoughts about TBI and Substance Abuse

1. In the United States, direct and indirect costs of brain injury are estimated at over $75 billion a year.

True

False

2. NIDA estimates that the yearly cost of substance abuse in the United States exceeds $480 billion.

True

False

3. Current and former military personnel are almost immune from substance abuse problems due to their extensive training in self-discipline.

True

False

4. In a typical acceleration/deceleration accident, the most common area of the brain affected is the Frontal Lobe.

True

False

5. One of the positive aspects of frontal lobe injury and substance abuse is that individuals who suffer from this condition are usually more pleasant and cooperative.

True

False

6. Survivors of TBI rarely if ever return to drinking alcohol because of its known negative effect on an individual's behavior.

True

False

7. Education and physical activity are both extremely important aspects of rehabilitation.

Continuing Education Questionnaire

- A. True
- B. False

8. One of the most complicating factors following mild traumatic brain injury is depression.

- True
- False

9. Over time, the presence of a psychiatric illness will usually lower the cost of an individual's health care.

- True
- False

10. Statistics show that in the United States, one overdose occurs every 90 minutes from the use of prescription drugs. Over half of those overdoses are the result of the illegal use of medical marijuana.

- A. True
- B. False