

Continuing Education Questionnaire

Write Your Name:

Once this form is completed, please submit to institute@neurorestorative.com

Ethics in Clinical Practice

1. Who was considered the father of ethics studies?

- A. Socrates
- B. Aristotle
- C. Aquinas
- D. Bill Clinton

2. Situational ethics refers to the tendency to make ethical decisions based on:

- A. Moral absolutes
- B. Societal rules
- C. What seems to be right in the moment
- D. All of the above

3. The purpose of the Milgram study was to better understand:

- A. The impact of punishment on learning
- B. Obedience to authority
- C. How doctors and nurses communicate
- D. The ethical impact of the rising cost of health care

4. The Willowbrook study raised questions about:

- A. Freedom of consent
- B. Adequate disclosure
- C. The nature and extend of information given to patients prior to treatment
- D. All of the above

5. Out of the Tuskegee Syphilis Study came the Belmont Report, which established ethical principles and guidelines for the protection of human subjects. These guidelines are based on fundamental values of:

- A. Beneficence
- B. Respect for autonomy
- C. Justice
- D. All of the above

Continuing Education Questionnaire

6. Each of the following is an example of beneficence in health care except:
- A. No individual shall be harmed in the interest of obtaining societal benefits
 - B. Always strive to maximize possible benefits while minimizing possible harm
 - C. Make every effort to secure the financial viability of the treating health care entity
 - D. Make every effort to secure the well-being of each patient/client
7. The term Summa Bonum refers to our responsibility to strive for:
- A. The highest good
 - B. Maximum payment
 - C. The smartest employees
 - D. The longest length of stay
8. Which of the following is an ethical conflict that often arises in brain injury rehabilitation?
- A. Patient's right to self-determination and the best interest of the patient
 - B. Patient's right to watch their favorite TV shows
 - C. Patient's right to have their favorite dessert after dinner
 - D. Patient's right to use their cell phone whenever they want
9. Who is prone to ethical missteps?
- A. Neuropsychologists
 - B. Physicians
 - C. Nurses
 - D. Each of us
10. The high cost of health care has made:
- A. Ethical dilemmas in health care more pronounced
 - B. Ethical dilemmas in health care less pronounced
 - C. Had no impact on ethics in health care
 - D. None of the above