

Continuing Education Questionnaire

Topic: Return to School Following TBI

Instructor: Rob McDaniel

Date: February 28, 2020

Your Name:

Once this form is completed, please submit to institute@neurorestorative.com

1. What is the most prevalent cause of brain injury in adolescents?
 - a. Falls
 - b. Assault
 - c. Abuse
 - d. Motor vehicle accidents

2. What is the leading cause of brain injury in pediatrics?
 - a. Falls and pedestrian accidents
 - b. Sports injuries
 - c. Gunshot
 - d. Stroke

3. What are the main concerns of families following pediatric and adolescent brain injury?
 - a. Cost of care while hospitalized
 - b. Academic concerns
 - c. Medical, physical issues, learning, memory and behavioral issues
 - d. Ability to return to previous activities

4. What are some common outcome sequelae?
 - a. Injury may obliterate previously learned skills
 - b. Kids may need to skip a grade
 - c. Physical skills return faster than cognitive skills
 - d. Appetite may be affected

Continuing Education Questionnaire

5. What are the common modification needs of a child returning to the classroom?
 - a. Size of the school
 - b. Long term vocational determinations
 - c. Lighting issues in the classroom
 - d. Schedule breaks/rest periods

6. What are some types of descriptive feedback?
 - a. Peer counseling
 - b. Validation of values
 - c. Clarification
 - d. Bio-feedback

7. Name one frequent misconception following brain injury in children.
 - a. Children need more therapy than adults.
 - b. Children improve quicker than adults.
 - c. Children process information quicker than adults.
 - d. Children with brain injury can't learn.

8. What are the two types of generalization?
 - a. Stimulus and response
 - b. Operant conditioning and talk therapy
 - c. Muscle coordination and muscle memory
 - d. Cognitive and behavioral therapy

9. What statement is true of assessment considerations for children with brain injury?
 - a. Standard psychometrics will tell you all you need to know about their deficits.
 - b. Timed trials always prove true.
 - c. Neuropsychological assessments with corresponding consultation can be a valuable resource.
 - d. Psychiatric assessments are the gold standard for brain injury.

10. What are some future considerations for special education?
 - a. The age of the teacher
 - b. How many students in the classroom
 - c. Precision teaching
 - d. Size of the school district