

Continuing Education Questionnaire

Write Your Name:

Once this form is completed, please submit to institute@neurorestorative.com

"Malingering: The Impact of Effort on Outcome"

1. It is _____ to determine if something or someone is influencing rehabilitation outcomes?
 - A. Very easy
 - B. Easy
 - C. Difficult
 - D. Very difficult
2. Effort can be defined as...
 - A. Clinically – exertion of physical and/or mental effort
 - B. Statistically – measuring validity and reliability
 - C. Legally – measuring truthfulness
 - D. A and B
 - E. All of the above
3. Effort can be influenced by the following...
 - A. An internal motivation of the individual being served
 - B. An external condition to the person being served
 - C. Psychological factors
 - D. All of the above
4. Motivation has an impact on Effort. There are two types of motivation that were discussed.
 - A. Internal
 - B. External
 - C. Family
 - D. Personal
 - E. A and B only
 - F. All of the above
5. Which of the following was not a disorder discussed in the lecture?
 - A. Somatic Symptom Disorder
 - B. Anorexia Nervosa
 - C. Factitious Disorder
 - D. Malingering

Continuing Education Questionnaire

6. Functional Neurological Symptom Disorder is what?

- A. The newer term for conversion disorder or reaction
- B. Altered voluntary motor or sensory function
- C. A disorder that provides evidence of incompatibility
- D. A and C
- E. B and C
- F. A, B, C only

7. The difference between Factitious Disorder and Malingering is?

- A. Factitious disorder is internally driven, while Malingering is externally driven.
- B. Factitious Disorder is about being well, and Malingering is about being disabled.
- C. Both conditions are deceptive
- D. A and C only
- E. A and B only

8. Malingering's primary feature is?

- A. Secondary Gain
- B. Playing the sick role
- C. Gaining the attention of others
- D. Manipulating a close relationship into the sick role

9. Malingering should be strongly considered or suspected if...

- A. Medicolegal context of presentation
- B. Marked discrepancy between the individual's claimed stress or disability and the objective findings and observations
- C. Lack of cooperation during the diagnostic evaluation and in complying with the prescribed treatment regimen
- D. The presence of antisocial personality disorder
- E. None of the above
- F. All of the above

10. The Mayo Portland Adaptability Inventory – 4 has items that may be helpful in the assessment of effort and motivation. Which items have been identified that may assist in this level of examination?

- A. Pain and Headache
- B. Anxiety
- C. Sensitivity to Mild Symptoms
- D. Depression
- E. A and C
- F. None of the above