

Continuing Education Questionnaire

Topic: Generational Diversity: Brain Injury Management Through Understanding Culture

Date: February 26, 2021

Write Your Name: _____

Once this form is completed, please submit to institute@neurorestorative.com

1. The definition of culture includes attitudes, moral and religious beliefs, and _____?
 - a. Economic status
 - b. Race
 - c. Habits and behaviors
 - d. Employment

2. For Gen Y (millennials) money is a _____?
 - a. Goal
 - b. Dream
 - c. Tool
 - d. None of the above

3. When managing brain injuries for a 10-year old child, what is the strongest factor for improvement?
 - a. Paper and pen
 - b. Predictability
 - c. Play time
 - d. All of the above

Continuing Education Questionnaire

4. What generations benefit the most from using social media as part of treatment?
 - a. Baby boomers and millennials
 - b. Alpha generation and baby boomers
 - c. Generation X and alpha generation
 - d. Generation Z and generation Y
 - e. All of the above

5. When planning care for baby boomers, decision making is
 - a. Shared-decision with caregivers
 - b. Individual decision
 - c. Social media driven
 - d. Family only

6. A 45-year-old man undergoing treatment is most likely to:
 - a. Seek treatment outside of approved clinicians
 - b. Adhere to the treatment plan without question
 - c. Need to be told what to do
 - d. Freely contribute to treatment

7. A 21-year-old girl is getting treatment and her job called to set a return-to-work date. It is possible for her to return to work and why?
 - a. No, because the effects of brain injury affect self-image
 - b. Yes, because she can blend in nicely
 - c. Yes, because functional loss with neuroplasticity
 - d. No, because she does not need the money

Continuing Education Questionnaire

8. May Lou is 56 years old and suffered a stroke following a car accident two months ago. She wants to return to work, but she has significant function loss of the right side of the body. The care giving team's focus will be to
- a. Find a different job for her with current limitations
 - b. Prioritize return to regular activity
 - c. Ask the family to tell her she cannot return to work
 - d. Manage comorbidities
9. A 35-year-old engineer says he feels isolated. The treatment team provides a counselor, but also what?
- a. Allots short periods of time for social media and use of technology to communicate with family and friends
 - b. Restricts use of technology
 - c. Provides in-house activities only for stimulation
 - d. Tells him to journal
10. Apart from standard admission and treatment assessments, it is important to identify_____to enhance the treatment plan for better outcomes.
- a. Financial status
 - b. Communication traits
 - c. Generational characteristics
 - d. How healthcare is consumed.