

Continuing Education Questionnaire

Write Your Name:

Once this form is completed, please submit to institute@neurorestorative.com

The Power of Engagement: Using functionally engaging activities to improve therapeutic outcomes

1. Which of the following is a benefit of engagement?

- A. Enhances opportunities for choice and problem solving
- B. Enhances quality of life
- C. Forecasts a future wedding to occur
- D. A and B

2. A staff-specific benefit of engagement is _____?

- A. Reduces likelihood for client participation in problem behaviors
- B. Improves job satisfaction
- C. Improves supervision of participants
- D. All of the above

3. Which is not a discussed cue for staff to engage participants?

- A. When you find yourself doing a task that you could be teaching a participant to do for themselves
- B. When the boss is on the floor
- C. When the participant is sitting idle doing nothing
- D. When the participant is engaged in an appropriate activity, but making mistakes

4. Which is a self-care engagement activity?

- A. Brushing teeth
- B. Mopping floor
- C. Playing board game
- D. Going to work

5. Which is an example of a domestic engagement activity?

- A. Unloading the dishwasher
- B. Showering
- C. Uno
- D. Gardening

Continuing Education Questionnaire

6. Which is an example of a leisure engagement activity?

- A. Reading a book
- B. Washing clothes
- C. Setting the table
- D. Shaving

7. Watching a baseball game on TV is a passively engaging activity?

- A. True
- B. False

8. Elements of an effective schedule include:

- A. Preferred activities
- B. Activities that replace a challenging behavior
- C. Allows for choice and variance from day to day
- D. All of the above

9. Why do schedules get scrapped?

- A. Staff turnover
- B. Pieces of the schedule become lost
- C. Schedule is confusing
- D. All of the above

10. Having a well-stocked activity closet is all you need for engagement to occur.

- A. True
- B. False