

Continuing Education Questionnaire

Topic: Dealing With Difficult Family Situations

Date: January 29, 2021

Write Your Name: _____

Once this form is completed, please submit to institute@neurorestorative.com

1. Common learning styles fall into the categories of visual, _____, and physical.
 - a. Silent
 - b. Verbal
 - c. Terrible
 - d. Games
2. There is a difference between words and _____?
 - a. Food
 - b. Dogs
 - c. Clothing
 - d. Tone
3. In most instances, use of technical jargon should be _____ when communicating with families.
 - a. Avoided
 - b. Presented
 - c. Shouted
 - d. Withheld
4. What is one of the top three priority areas for rehabilitation?
 - a. Medical stability
 - b. Cognitive functioning
 - c. Family dynamics
 - d. Behavioral functioning
 - e. All of the above

Continuing Education Questionnaire

5. When seeking control, families tend to be most comfortable in dealing with _____ issues?
- a. Confrontation
 - b. Financial
 - c. Personal
 - d. Foreign
6. One con of a crisis is that there may be family _____?
- a. Deterioration
 - b. Pranks
 - c. Cohesion
 - d. Ties
7. The sequence of family reactions following a catastrophe can include relief, _____ guilt and dependency.
- a. Strength
 - b. Anger
 - c. Gossip
 - d. Parties
8. The need for regaining _____ is REAL!
- a. Weight
 - b. The Lead
 - c. Control
 - d. Phone service

Continuing Education Questionnaire

9. It is best NOT to _____ tough issues before trust has been established.
- a. Confront
 - b. Support
 - c. Laugh at
 - d. Deny
10. Always be upfront and _____. Never lie to make a family member happy.
- a. Loud
 - b. Secretive
 - c. Honest
 - d. Rude