

Continuing Education Questionnaire

Write Your Name:

Once this form is completed, please submit to institute@neurorestorative.com

“Shaken Baby Syndrome - SRS”

1. Shaken Baby Syndrome is the result of :

- A. Trauma
- B. Stress
- C. Crying
- D. All of the above

2. A coping mechanism would be for the parent or caregiver:

- A. Place the child in a room by themselves
- B. Take a 10 minute break
- C. Leave the child with a neighbor
- D. None of the above

3. A contributing factor in SBS is:

- A. Underprivileged parents
- B. Stressful jobs
- C. Single parenting
- D. All the above

4. Complication of SBS includes:

- A. Death
- B. Depression
- C. Dementia
- D. All of the above

5. SBS can only be identified by

- A. a MRI or CT Scan
- B. Crying irritable child
- C. X-ray of the skull
- D. All the above

Continuing Education Questionnaire

6. Non-accidental Trauma is:

- A. An intended act of violence
- B. By mistake
- C. Motor vehicle accident
- D. A & C

7. Survivors of SBS:

- A. Are the only individuals impacted
- B. Suffer lifelong injuries
- C. Can go on to live a normal life
- D. All of the above

8. Babies with changes in cognition or mental status is a sign of:

- A. Pain
- B. Hungry
- C. SBS
- D. Hungry

9. Shaking a baby:

- A. Does not cause the brain to swell
- B. Can cause the brain to swell
- C. Stops them from crying
- D. None of the above

10. Health care professionals:

- A. Are mandated reporters
- B. If you don't have proof you cannot report
- C. Are not required to report abuse
- D. All of the above